OLD ENGLAND: OR,
The CONSTITUTIONAL JOURNAL.

By JEFFREY BROADBOTTOM, of Covent-Garden, Esq;

SATURDAY, MARCH 23, 1745. [No. 102.]

THERE is a certain Character of Diſtinction which every great State has, and every wiſe State will preſerve.—Even Innocence itſelf has been ſometimes ſacrific'd to the Public, the laudable Jealouſy of that Character.——Hence, among the Greeks, we ſee an Ariſtides in Exile, a Phocion in Fetters, and a Themiſtocles in Diſgrace. It was this Jealouſy which drove Camillus into Exile, as well as deprived Tarquin of Sovereignty. Even the Silver-tongued Deliverer of Rome was oblig'd to yield to its Rage; and the People loſt the Remembrance of their Deliverance from the Flames and Daggers of Ruffian Conſpiracy, in that of the Violence offer'd to the ever living Spirit of their Conſtitution in the Puniſhment of the Conſpirators. In modern Times, and but the other Day, we ſaw a Doxat beheaded, and a Seckendorff impriſon'd, diſgrac'd, and incapacitated, only for not being ſucceſsful.—

In ſome States this Jealouſy of public Honour has been ſo ſtrong, that no conſtitutional Proviſions have been made againſt its Violation. Amongſt the Athenians there was no Law againſt Paracide; the Reaſon given by Cicero is, that the Law-givers of that wiſe State did not imagine that ſuch a Crime could exiſt, therefore they were afraid, leſt providing Puniſhment would have look'd like ſuggeſting the Poſſibility of Guilt. But the ſame great Man rightly obſerves that there is no Crime of which, in a degenerate State, degenerate Men will not be guilty.——

If there is a Character of Diſtinction of which the Engliſh Nation ought to be jealous, it is that of their Naval Glory.—A Diſtinction ſo carefully upheld by our Anceſtors, that we find, in the Hiſtory and Conſtitutions of our Naval Affairs, An Engliſh Ship was not to fly from one of another Nation, tho' of double her Force.——But, as was the Caſe of the Athenians in Matters of Paracide, our Law-givers never thought it neceſſary to provide, in a Parliamentary Way, any preciſe, poſitive, Puniſhment for a cowardly or a treacherous Sea Commander, whether Admiral or Captain.——Theſe were Monſters which the old Engliſh Soil never produc'd, and, like thoſe engender'd in the Mud of the Nile, are only found when the Waters of Corruption begin to ſubſide; and the Floods of P——ry Intereſt, which, like a Torrent, has broken down all Diſtinctions, all Merit, both in our Army and Navy, begin to aſſwage

The firſt great Naval Expedition we meet with in the Engliſh Hiſtory, is that of Richard the Firſt to the Holy Land; and the firſt Body of Marine Laws for the Uſe of Engliſh Seamen, was compos'd upon that Occaſion. But Richard, bold, preſuming, and ſmitten with Military Frenzy as he was, knew nothing of Court Martials. He carry'd along with him the Civil Judges of his Land, who, by our old Hiſtorians, are term'd the Juſticiaries of the Navy; and tho' his Regulations are ſevere againſt the Diſturbers of the King's Peace on board the Navy, yet we find no Article levell'd againſt either Cowards or Traytors.——

Defect of Duty, either in a Land or Sea Officer, may proceed from four Cauſes; the firſt is Defect of Capacity, which we term the want of a Head; the Second, the love of Life or Limbs, which we term the want of a Heart; the Third, is the love of Money and Intereſt, which we term the want of Honeſty; and the Fourth is Envy, which is a Motive ſo deteſtable, that the Crime itſelf has no Name in the Engliſh Language. Many a well-meaning Man may be weak, yet brave at the ſame time; many an Officer has been mean and cowardly, tho' endu'd with Underſtanding and Capacity; and many a one avaritious and ambitious, tho' both Able and Brave. But if the want of a Head has the ſame bad Effects, as it undoubtedly has, upon a State as the want of a Heart; and if the want of a Heart is as pernicious as the want of Honeſty; then ought they all to come under the ſame Cenſure, and to ſhare under the ſame Puniſhment. That Safety and Intereſt are natural, tho' upon many Occaſions, far from being laudable Affections.——But a Failure in Duty, which proceeds from Envy of ſuperiour Command, or ſuperiour Merit, is in Military and Naval Diſcipline, what the Sin againſt the Holy Ghoſt is in Religion, a Sin of ſo black, ſo deteſtable, a Nature, as ought to be forgiven neither in this Age, nor that which is to come.—Compar'd with this Crime that of the Tartar is pardonable, who aiming the poiſon'd Dart at the Enemy moſt dazzling in Arms and pre-eminent in Courage, in hopes that the Fortunes and Valour of the Deceas'd will fall to himſelf by Inheritance.

The B——ſh P——t is now upon an Enquiry, as well worthy the Majeſty of the Engliſh People as any ever ſet on Foot.—It is, in Effect, an Enquiry into thoſe Cauſes which has ſhrivell'd up the Glory of the Britiſh Navy, which has blaſted the Honour of England's Name, and ſhrunk below the Importance of a French Pennant, that Flag which us'd to ſpread Britain's Power with her Renown; which us'd to diffuſe her Terrors along with her Juſtice.——

The Spirit of Enquiry is the Spirit of Liberty; and who ever, by any dark, by any ſneaking, by any infamous Colluſion, goes about to baffle it, ſtabs Liberty in her moſt ſenſible Vitals. Better no Enquiry were ever ſet on Foot than one ineffectual.——An Enquiry baffled by Colluſion; an Enquiry thrown out to the People, as a Tub to the Whale, to amuſe their Expectations, eſtabliſhes, as we ſaw from a late Inſtance, Abuſes more intolerable than thoſe it was ever meant to redreſs; it becomes a Reproach to the Judgment of the Well-meaning; it ſerves as a Precedent of Impunity to the Guilty.

The excellent Phocion exulted in his Country's Spirit of Enquiry, in her Jealouſy of her Honour, tho' the Edge of her miſtaken Juſtice was ready to fall upon his own blameleſs Head.——Even the Journals of our own Country's Equity are not void of Inſtances of undeſerving Sacrifices made to public Jealouſy. A great Officer, ſince diſtinguiſhed by a great Name in N—l Affairs, underwent, ſo late as the Reign of King William, a P——y Cenſure, in a Caſe where his Innocence was prov'd to the Satisfaction of every Man of Senſe and Honour; perhaps to the private Conviction of his Judges themſelves:—— But a Sacrifice muſt be made to the jealous Honour of OLD ENGLAND in her favourite Character.——The Romans incapacitated one of the two firſt Conſuls they ever had, upon a Jealouſy conſeſſedly groundleſs: His Name was Collatinus; he was the Colleague of Brutus. A Briton who has ſhar'd in the Fate of a Collatinus, I dare ſay, were there Occaſion, would diſcover the Virtue of a Brutus. Leſs was the Merit, becauſe leſs ſevere the Tryal, of that Roman in delivering his Country from Slavery; than in purging his Blood from the Stain of a degenerate Son, by delivering him up to his Country's Juſtice.——

But if a wiſe People are ſo jealous of their public Honour, that, like the Wife of Cæſar, it muſt be free, not from Guilt only, but Suſpicion, how ought they to behave when Circumſtances ſwell beyond Suſpicion; nay, to Conviction. When an infamous Conduct on all Hands is allow'd; and when the only Queſtion is where to fix it; on thoſe who, by their Courage, did Honour to England; or, by Forbearance, ſought Safety to themſelves:—On thoſe who ventur'd their Lives, or thoſe who ſav'd their Perſons;—in ſhort, on thoſe who fought, or thoſe who did not fight.——The old Philoſopher ſaid to his Diſciple, Loquere ut te Videam; "ſpeak that I may ſee you." By the ſame Rule he would have ſaid to an Officer of War, "Fight that I may ſee you."—War amongſt Gentlemen, amongſt Engliſhmen, is, or ought to be, an Art, and not a Trade.—Were it a Trade, it ought to be judg'd by Mechanical Rules.——But C——t M——ls indeed, have, of late, proceeded as if they had been a Jury of Tradeſmen, ſummon'd by a Coroner to ſet upon the departed, the murther'd Reputation and Honour of their Country.——They have acquitted, for want of Proofs which were impoſſible to be brought; they have diſcharg'd upon Lameneſs of Evidence, becauſe it did not gallop up to a Demonſtration of the Crime; and yet the Charge, all the time, ſpoke itſelf ſo ſtrongly, that there was not a Man among themſelves, there was not a Gentleman in England, who did not, in his Conſcience, find the Accus'd Guilty.

But, God forbid, that Courts Martial ſhould ever proceed in any other Manner, or that any Man ſhould ever be try'd before them, but as a Tradeſman in War. As ſuch, let him be try'd by a Jury of his Peers; and let him be found Guilty or Innocent according as his Intereſt amongſt HIS Brother Tradeſmen, or THEIR fellow feeling may direct.——But an Officer's Behaviour as an Engliſhman, ought to come before another Tribunal; a Tribunal which will have no Regard to the dirty, mechanical Evaſions of the Trade; or thoſe Excuſes which Cunning or Envy may invent, to ſcreen themſelves from the Meaning of Orders, under their Letter; in a Caſe where no Engliſhman of common Senſe, or common Honeſty, could be at a Loſs how to behave.

As to Courts Martial in general, it is not, at preſent, my Intention to arraign their Conſtitution; but, at beſt, they are neceſſary Evils.—One thing however I will venture to ſay; that, according to their preſent Model, there is no Officer, guilty of any Crime either of Cowardice, or Miſmanagement, however black, who may not be clear'd by a proper Correſpondence with their Friends feelers.——Clear'd, did I ſay, nay they may [illegible] Thanks;—they may receive the Character of C[illegible] and Abilities, tho' the moſt glaring Evidences of Cowardice or Miſmanagement are lying before them.—For an Officer conſcious of infamous Conduct, to demand to be clear'd, as when there is no Accuſer; when in the Nature of Things there can be no Accuſer; where, from the Circumſtances of the Service, there can be no Evidence, is ſuch a Mockery upon Juſtice, no Man of Senſe can believe without the utmoſt Difficulty, no Briton can hear without the deepeſt Indignation.—But if ſuch Things have been, if ſuch Things may be, let the Teſt of Gentlemen's Patriotiſm be to prevent them, at this critical Juncture, when the Eyes, not only of this Nation, but of all Europe, are fixt upon their Conduct.

SCOTLAND

Leith, March 11. Yeſterday arriv'd the Katherine, of and from Falmouth, Jaſper Millar, laden with Wheat, who gives Account that he met Whitebie betwixt the Scares and the Shore; and likewiſe ſays, that the Dogger Privateer had got in amongſt a Fleet of Colliers, who were attended by a Man of War, and were riding at Anchor all very ſnug; but one of the Colliers knew her, and went and acquainted the Captain of the Man of War, that he was ſure, if ſhe was above Water, it was no other, and that ſhe had done great Damage on the Coaſt; adviſing him to take no Notice of her for ſome Time, for he ſaid, if once he thought himſelf diſcover'd, he would cut, and no Ship there could come up with her; he ſo far followed the Collier's Advice; and when he thought they would leaſt ſuſpect him, he bore down upon her, which the Dogger perceiving, was cutting her Cable; but before it was quite through, the Man of War pour'd in a Broadſide upon her, and took her, and found ſeveral Ranſomers on board

COUNTRY NEWS.

Canterbury, March 16. We hear from Folkſtone, that Mr John Jordan, a Cuſtom-Houſe Officer there, having by his Induſtry fallen under the Diſpleaſure of a Gang of Smugglers who use that Coaſt, on Thurſday laſt in the Afternoon they came in a large Body, attacked his Houſe, deſtroyed his Goods, and took what Plate they could find. And one of the Smugglers obſerving a Man to look thro' the Glaſs, taking Notice of their Actions, he went into the Room and endeavour'd to ſhoot him; but miſſing Fire, the Man took a Piſtol that was at Hand, and ſhot him dead. They then made off, went to Hyde, and joined the reſt of their Companions, who, one and all, agreed to reſcue the Body of their deceaſed Friend, and another of their Companions who was in Cuſtody; but on the Road to Folkſtone, they being informed the Townſmen were up in Arms againſt them, and had ſent to Dover for a Detachment of Soldiers, they marched off, threatening Vengeance. They were all well arm'd, with a Brace of Piſtols and a Carbine, as the Smuggler had that was killed, who had Ruffles, and was genteely dreſs'd; a Piece of Plate and ſome Letters belonging to Mr. Jorden were found in his Pocket.

Letters from Flanders inform us, that one Macguire, an Iriſh Papiſt, and Officer in Lord John Dr——nd's Regiment in the French Service, was taken up at Ghent as a Spy, and tried for ſeducing Men to deſert from his Majeſty's Service: The Fact being clearly prov'd, he was convicted, and immediately executed upon the Parade.

We learn by private Letters from Dreſden, that his Poliſh Majeſty has ſhewn no great Reluctance on the Subject of the Propoſitions made him for placing on his Head the Imperial Crown, becauſe he conceives it the only Means of coming to an harmonious and indiſputed Election; the Electors of Brandenburgh, Bavaria and Palatine, having already made him an Offer of their Votes.

The Elector Palatine is ſo enraged at the heavy Contributions raiſed throughout his whole Dominions by Duke Aremberg, and the little Regard ſhewn to his Complaints, that it is believed he only waits the Iſſue of a Battle to declare War againſt the Queen of Hungary, and put all his ſtrong Places into the Hands of the French.

Laſt Saturday Thomas Winterbottom, Eſq; was unanimouſly choſen Alderman of Billingſgate Ward.

The following is an Account of the Hurrican which happen'd lately at Jamaica.

On Saturday, the 20th of October, we had as great and dreadful a Storm as ever was known in this Part of the World; the Wind being at Eaſt and by North. After much Rain, and ſqually Weather, which had been for many Days before, it began about Six o'Clock in the Evening, and increaſing till about Twelve at Night with redoubled Fury, committed unheard of Deva ſtations, and blow'd a Storm till Six in the Morning. By the Impetuoſity of this Hurrican, the new Fort at Meſquita Point was demoliſhed, many Houſes were blown down, Roofs and Piazzas blown'd off, and all the Wharfs of this Town, Port-Royal, and Paſſage Fort, deſtroyed, and a great Part of the Goods thereon waſted away: But the Damage in the Harbour far exceeded that on Shore. Eight of his Majeſty's Ships and Veſſels, and Ninety-ſix Merchant-Veſſels, were ſtranded, wreck'd, and founder'd; inſomuch that out of a 105 Veſſels only his Majeſty's Ship Rippon rid it out, and ſhe without Maſts.

The People in Port-Royal were terribly afraid of a Deluge, the Town being two or three Feet overflow'd from the Harbour, but the Wall prevented it. They have receiv'd great Damages in their Houſes, &c.

In the Country ſeveral Plantations, Houſes, &c. were deſtroyed; and many People, both White and Black, and a great Number of Cattle, &c. drowned by the overflowing of the Rivers; a particular Account of which we cannot yet give.

We learn from Vienna, that Field-Marſhal Count Traun's Equipages are preparing; but that it is not yet a Point fully ſettled, whether he is to return to Sileſia or to Italy.

His firſt Wife was Katherine Daughter of John Shorter, Eſq; of Bybrook in the County of Kent, by whom he had Iſſue three Sons, viz. the Lord Walpole, Edward, and Horatio; and two Daughters, Katherine and Mary; the former died young, the latter was married to the preſent Right Hon. Lord Cholmondeley, and ſince deceas'd.

Several Perſons belonging to Churches and Chapels, and the Fleet, together with many others, ſuppoſing the Marriages at May Fair New Chapel, to be detrimental to their Intereſt, have made it their Buſineſs to rave and clamour in ſuch a Manner, as not to deſerve an Anſwer, becauſe every Thing they have ſaid tends only to expoſe their own Ignorance and Malice in the Opinion of People of good Senſe and Underſtanding. Mr. Keith's Enemies being now in Poſſeſſion of the Great Chapel in May-Fair, near Hyde-Park-Corner; its natural to ſuppoſe the Clerk and Pew keepers (for their own Intereſt, and to get Money for the Doctor, who put them into the Place) will invent every Thing which may induce People to be at the Charge of a Licenſe from the Commons, and be married there: But to prevent Miſtakes, the little New-Chapel is in the Corner Houſe oppoſite to the City-Side of the Great Chapel, and within ten Yards of it, and the Miniſter, who goes on with the Marriages, lives in the ſame Corner Houſe where the Little Chapel is, and the Licence on a Crown Stamp, Miniſter and Clerk's Fees, together with a Certificate, amount to one Guinea, as heretofore, any Time till Four in the Afternoon; and that it may be the better known, there is a Porch at the Door like a Country Church Porch.

The Sixteenth Edition of

ONANIA: Or, The Heinous Sin of Self-Pollution, and all its frightful Conſequences (in both Sexes) conſidered, with ſpiritual and Phiſical Advice to thoſe who have already injured themſelves by this abominable Practice.

As alſo the SIXTH EDITION of the SUPPLEMENT to it, both of them Revis'd and Enlarged, and now printed together in One Volume.

And as the ſeveral Paſſages in the former Impreſſions, that have been charged with being obſcure and ambiguous, are in theſe cleared up and explained, there will be no more Alterations or Additions made to them.

Theſe Editions contain ſome further and ſurprizing Inſtances of the Miſchiefs by that filthy, ſinful Commerce with ones ſelf, which is ſo notoriouſly practiſed, as well by the Adult as Youth, Women as Men, Married as Single, to the weakning their Generative Faculties, and hindering Procreation, as their Letters of Complaint to the Author herein inſerted, ſhew.

And, amongſt others, a curious Letter from a Lady, with his Anſwer to it, concerning the Uſe and Abuſe of the Marriage-Bed; together with divers Caſuiſtical and other Letters from both Sexes, of ſome ſecret unnatural Effeminacies, neceſſary to be known both by the married and ſingle of each Sex. To which is added,

A Curious PIECE tranſlated out of the Latin, from L. S. SCHMEDIER, as it is inſerted in the Acta Lipſienſia; concerning the Return of the Seed into the Maſs of Blood; well worth the Peruſal of Phyſicians, Surgeons, Anatomiſts, and all others of Art and Curioſity.

As alſo Dr QUINCY's Tranſlation of Dr CARR's remarkable Anſwer to a Letter ſent by a Divine, concerning two Nuns in Rome, reported to have changed their Sex.

Likewiſe Dr. DRAKE's and ſeveral other Phyſicians Opinions of Hermaphrodites, and Women brought to a Reſemblance of them, by the Practice of Self-Pollution, as was the Caſe of a young Lady of 18, whoſe well wrote Letter to the Author, deſcribing and lamenting her Condition, is (in order to deter others) inſerted.

A very grave and learned Divine and Phyſician having peruſed this Diſcourſe, before it went to the Preſs, returned it with his Opinion of it in theſe Words

'This little Book ought to be read by all Sorts of People, 'of both Sexes, of what Age, Degree, Profeſſion, or Condition 'ſoever, guilty or not guilty of the Sin declaimed againſt in it.'

Is now ſold (Mr ISTED, Bookſeller, at the Golden Ball, in Fleetſtreet being dead) by CHARLES CORBETT, Bookſeller, at Addiſon's Head, oppoſite St Dunſtan's Church, Fleetſtreet, and by HENRY COOK under the Royal Exchange. Price Bound 3 s. 6 d.

The True Cordial QUINTESSENCE of VIPERS, the moſt Noble and Grand Preparation in the whole Materia Medica, for the real, ſubſtantial Cure of Impotency in Men, and Barrenneſs in Women; and is vaſtly preferable to Viper Wine, or any other Preparation of Vipers whatever, as being replete with the full and whole Virtues of them.

A Few Drops of it only, gives ſuch a generous Warmth, and ſo exceedingly delights the Vital and Animal Spirits, Senſes, and Nerves, as ſoon to ſhew what it will do, upon a little Continuance of it; for it not only promotes, and prompts to a Deſire, but alſo furniſhes proper Matter, for the Support and Eſtabliſhment of a true laſting Inclination and Power.

By this Means it anſwers the End as well of Food as Phyſick; nor is there any thing in Nature beſides, that can in that Reſpect come up to it conſidering that it univerſally nouriſhes and reſtores in all the Declenſions of Deſire and Vigour, without the leaſt forcing the Veſſels, or ſtimulating the Parts, as moſt other Medicines for theſe Purpoſes do: And tho' it be a Maxim in Phyſick, that ARNA CERERE & BACCHO FRIGET VENUS; that is, in effect, is ſo ſufficiently nutritious as to want no Aſſiſtance that Way; not but it muſt be allowed, that good Eating and Drinking with it, cannot but in ſome Degree, at leaſt as an Auxiliary contribute to its Efficacy.

Nor does it only furniſh Matter and create Deſire, but alſo true Power (as it braces up and corroborates the Teſtes) and gives an elaſtick Springineſs to the Muſculi Erectores Penis in Men, and corrects, cleanſes, and comforts the Uterus, or Womb, in Women, the Lankneſs and Laxity of the former, and the Foulneſs, Coldneſs, or Obſtruction of the latter, being more the Cauſe of Impotency or Infertility, in the one Sex, and Indiſpoſition or Sterility in the other than any Thing elſe beſide; and that it is Balſamick, and greatly Reſtorative, is confirmed by long Experience, and we have many Inſtances in Phyſical Writings, of Perſons arriving to a healthful old Age, as well as recover'd from deplorable Decays and Weakneſſes, by a continued Uſe of the common Preparations of Vipers, which this Quinteſſence, by being of vaſtly more Efficacy, brings about in a Quarter of the Time, and with the Tenth Part of the Quantity.

Thoſe who but once try it, will ſo pleaſantly experience its nutritive quickening Properties, in exhilerating the Heart, reviving the Spirits, comforting the Vitals, circulating the Juice, and recreating and renovating, as it were the whole Man, that they will never be without it; for it is ſuch a preſent Help, in Time of Need, as that on the taking then but a Doſe or two more of it than ordinary, it will ſo inſtantaneouſly animate the dull inactive Spirits, and rouze up, and actuate the ſluggiſh enfeebled Faculties, in both Sexes, as to excite and capacitate where it could hardly be expected, and at the ſame Time ſeldom fails to render that conjugal Intercourſe Prolifick, Price Half a Guinea the Bottle.

Mr. Weſt, Goldſmith, who us'd to ſell theſe Bottles, being lately dead, it is now Sold only by his Son-in-Law, Mr. Johnſon, a Baker, at the Seven Stars in Vere-Street, Clare-Market, ſealed up, with Directions (for any Meſſenger) upon asking for only a Bottle of Quinteſſence.

ANTI-SIPHYLICON

THE only short and most infallible CURE in the Universe for the Venereal Disease from the slightest Infection to the most extreme and deplorable Degree of it, even when the Blood and Juices are thoroughly contaminated with its malignant Virus, and the very Bones are affected with it.

Fresh Infections, call'd Claps, with all their attendant Symptoms, tho' ever so severe, are entirely carried off by it in a few Days, and so as effectually to prevent the Blood and Juices from being tainted with any remaining Relicks, on one Hand, or a seminal Gleet, or Weakness, to happen on the other.

And the most inveterate Degree of the French Illness, attended with nocturnal Pains, universal Breakings-out, and all other the most exasperated Symptoms, are soon overcome by it, and effectually and much more safely cured than by Salivation, Inunction, or any other Method whatever, and in so easy and pleasant a Manner, without impairing Strength, or occasioning any Inconvenience, as loudly to bespeak it the only apposite Remedy, or true Venereal Antidote in the World, and this some Thousands have, to their great Joy, experienced.

It is pleasant to take, occasions no Sickness or Disorder, nor requires Confinement, but may be taken, and the Cure be accomplish'd, without the Knowledge of the nearest Friend.

Those who suspect they have received an Injury may, by only a Dose or two of it, be perfectly freed from all Apprehensions; for it suffers no lurking Venom to lie hid in the Body, but wholly extirpates it, Root and Branch, in a gentle, easy, and most effectual Manner.

All such, likewise, as doubt they have some remaining Relicks of former Injuries, may, by a few Doses of it, entirely free themselves from all Suspicions of that Kind; for it admits of no Foulness, Corruption, or Putrefaction whatever, to remain in the Fluids, or to adhere to the Solids; and, on that Account, in all Scorbutick, Scrophulous, and even Leprous Eruptions, or Foulnesses of the Skin, or glandulous Swellings, and Impurities of the Juices, it does more by one Dose than any other Medicine, yet known, can by ten.

The Price of this most noble Anti-Siphylicon is but six Shillings a Pot, which, considering its extraordinary Efficacy, one Pot only being sufficient, in most Cases, to accomplish the Cure, is not a tenth Part of its Value; and is appointed by the Author to be had only at Mr. Radford's Toy-shop, at the Rose and Crown, against St. Clement's Church-yard, in the Strand, ready sealed up, with a Book of Instructions, by the Perusal of which all Persons who were ever affected with any Degree of the Venereal Disease may perfectly understand their own Condition, and certainly know when, and when not, the Venereal Poison is entirely rooted out of their Bodies. Note, Ask only for a Six Shilling Pot for the Scurvy.
